Landfill Go-ahead

MATTAPOISETT SANITARY LANDFILL APPROVAL RECEIVED

Mattapoisett Selectmen have received approval from the Massachusetts Department of Public Health to proceed with the building of a Sanitary Landfill site in the Tinkham Hill area. An engineer has examined the site and this approval means that the town may now proceed to buy the land and build the access road and buildings. Notification will be sent when the preparation is completed so that a field examination can be made prior to the placement of refuse there. The Selectmen have arranged a $96,000. municipal bond issue in order to finance the buying of the land, building of the road and buildings as authorized by the town in Article 21 and 22 at the annual town meeting. Town Council Leonard Perry is now taking the necessary legal steps to institute the purchase of the land. The Town Highway Department has been working on the roughed in access road in preparing the land for a roadbed.

John Denham has received permission by the Board of Selectmen to remove loam, which he owns, from the Big 3 Sawmill

Mattapoisett Selectmen are now engaged in a review and consideration of Alcoholic Beverage Licenses in town previous to renewal applications.

Approval has been given to the New England Telephone Company on a North Street cable application.

Selectmen were given an extensive briefing on all aspects of Cable TV by Mr. George Correa, of Main Street. Mr. Correa obtained the information from the Southeast Planning & Economic Development Commission. He outlined all of the benefits and pitfalls which accompany the issuance of cable TV licenses by towns and cities. Recently the State advised a moratorium on the issuance of licenses for cable TV until March of 1973.

ber of the Cambridge Consort, Miss Stuart has sung with the Boston Early Music Quartet and the Camerate of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Mr. Cook is a graduate of England's Cambridge University where he was Organ Scholar. After working several years as conductor and composer for the Old Vic Theater Company, he was appointed organist and choirmaster of the Parish Church at Stratford-on-Avon. Mr. Cook frequently performs as harpsichordist in the Noonhour Concert series at MIT.

Nelson Gore is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and has studied with John Holmes and Louis Speyer. He has appeared as soloist with the Santa Barbara Symphony and plays with the MIT Symphony Orchestra. He teaches at the All Newton Music School and Phillips Academy.

The Marion Art Center theater is perfectly suited to a concert of Chamber Music. The intimate atmosphere will be enhanced by a velvet curtain (circa 1890) and greens and holly will decorate the tables. Miss Stuart herself is a delight to the eye and the selections by Handel, Purcell and Bach to name a few, will combine to create a truly special evening, Sunday, December 3rd.

Reservations must be made in advance due to limited seating. Tables may be requested for groups. Please call the Marion Art Center (748-1266) or Mrs. Carol Anderson (758-4389).

Holly-Day Fair

The Holly-Day Fair will open at the Unitarian Memorial Church Saturday, December 2nd, at 1 o'clock. There will be booths for aprons, all kinds of knitted things, jewelry, white elephants, candy, miscellaneous gift items, home made 'goodies' of all kinds to eat, a special children's table and some more of that delicious cheese that disappears so quickly. A ham and bean supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 P.M. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the church office or from any Pilot Club member, or at the door. All are welcome!

Memorial Vandalized

Thanksgiving Day between 9 & 10 in the evening was when some person or persons performed senseless vandalism at the First Congregational Church, Rochester Center. The pastor, the Rev. Edward F. White, reports that all four of the large spot lights were broken off at their foundations and the wires twisted until they were broken off and thus blacked out the memorial lighting.

The wave of contempt for the rights of others has destroyed a beautiful display in Rochester. In lighting the Rochester Congregational Church the townspeople chose a year round way to honor the memory of the late wife of their pastor,

The Rev. Edward F. White. The shining symbol of the white church against the night sky is an inspiring sight.

No purpose except moronic sadism was served in the destruction of these lights. What manner of human can gain pleasure out of wreaking and destroying for its own sake? As light is the symbol of hope and creative energy, darkness symbolizes ignorance and destruction. Is this the message then? The brute force that twisted off these lamps is the brute force that has swept the country in the wake of the permissiveness that holds no individual responsible for his own actions. The struggle of evil against decency is no new thing but never has evil had such indulgence by the great mass of society.

We'd like to believe that soon this will pass, that Christmas displays will be enjoyed not destroyed, that memorials will be honored, that decoration and private property will be safe and secure from vandalism. We'd like to believe that the stupid will see the light and recognize their own capacity for enjoying the creative

Letter to The Editor

It has been perfectly clear to me for the longest time now that the most destructive element involved in the Bent Twig School has been the alternative life style which predominates there. I am sure that if a staff had come into town and had addressed themselves to those accepted aspects of education - the reading and the writing - and instilled a true enjoyment in the learning of mathematics and history, we would never have had such troubles with them. But, no, they did not know their place as educators.

I have seen instances in that school when the staff demanded change. They demanded an environment of honesty in which students were asked to think for themselves about what they wanted out of life. No wonder there was trouble - young people can't think for themselves. They don't know how! And I'll bet that 3 out of every 4 students, if given the opportunity would do nothing some of the time or "hack off". And the staff allowed this!

From the first time they stepped into town, it was obvious they were different. Don't get me wrong, it wasn't just the long hair and ragged clothes - they were different. Who else would have stood so patiently for all of the narrowmindedness that was directed at them? Who else would have stood for all of the slander, premature and immature superficial judgement which was passed on them from the beginning?

If it weren't for the staff's firm belief that honesty, free expression, joy, and responsibility for one's own learning had a place in the schools, we would have left long ago.

Love for our children,
Thom Alden

Heritage Day Observed

MASSACHUSETTS HERITAGE DAY

Melanie Wolak and Daniel Chase of Old Rochester Regional Junior High School were the student delegates to the Twelfth Annual Massachusetts Heritage Day held at the Battleship Massachusetts on October 18th. Faculty representatives at the program were Mr. Robert C. Gardner, assistant principal, and Mr. H. Stevens Browne. Mr. Gardner was a member of the Heritage Day Planning Committee, representing the executive board of the Junior High School Principals' Association.

Four hundred eighth grade students and teachers from public, and non-public schools throughout the Commonwealth, attended the day-long observance which explored the theme, "Liberty Under Law: An Individual's Responsibility, Past, Present and Future".

The highlights of the day included an extensive tour of the Battleship as well as the submarine USS Lionfish and the Maritime Museum. Dr. Edward G. Gibson, NASA Astronaut, was the keynote speaker. He has been designated as a scientist-pilot for the 56-day Skylab 4 Mission.

Reilly Passes 1000-Yd. Mark

BULLDOGS END SEASON

Richard Reilly warmed the hearts of the loyal, numb fans as a large contingent congealed in the stands on a cold blustery Turkey Day. Reilly powered his way down the field as the Old Rochester team sustained a sixty yard march in the fourth quarter. Reilly scored on a plunge and then rushed for the extra points. In the course of this drive, Rich became the only back in O.R. history to pass the 1,000 yard mark for the season. His 132 yards in this game gave him a season total of 1006 yards. Reilly's achievement is the more outstanding when considered against the background of the season which has been disappointing. Much of this yardage was individual effort. In spite of some excellent play by several exceptional players over the season the Bulldog team never put it together except for the opener against Case which revealed their potential. "Whitey" Wordell has played an outstanding line game and is highly regarded in the league. Paul "Bucky" Reilly has done some great receiving at end. Francoeur has an excellent passing arm. This was a group with more talent than most high school teams.

The Thanksgiving Day game was completely dominated by Dennis-Yarmouth. The Dolphins recovered a fumble on their own 36 and scored in 7 plays. Lopes scored and the point try failed. Another fumble later that quarter set up the second Dolphin score. O.R. lost the ball on their own 27. Kidwell sneaked to cap this series of 6 plays and again the conversion failed. The score was 12 to 0 at the half.

The Dolphins got on the board again late in the third period. Lopes scampered 40 yards on a punt return to be stopped on the Bulldog 10. A holding penalty gave O.R. some room but the Dolphins moved in to score. Lopes scored from the 11 in the eighth play of that series to make it 20 to 0.

The O.R. Bulldogs then put together their only drive of the game using the explosive punch of Reilly mixed with the running of Bruce Wingate. Reilly's TD ended the scoring for both teams and the final score stood at 20 to 8.

The Bulldogs won 2, lost 6 and tied 1 over the season.

Mr. Moynihan will conduct the first meeting at Old Hammondtown School on Thursday, November 30th, at 8:00 P.M. for the results of testing done in grades 4 to 6. Miss Aurich will conduct the second meeting in the auditorium of Center School on Monday, December 4th, at 7:30 P.M. for the results of testing done in grades 2 and 3. The purpose for these meetings is to explain the standardized testing program used in the elementary grades, the design, basic skills tested, and the results as reported on the California Achievement Test. and expeditions. He enjoys sports. Sports? You bet. Join up and, in the spring and summer, you may play baseball or softball before the meeting starts or at other times. In colder months there might be basketball, volleyball or other team activities, because troops don't just meet, they do things - exciting things you probably never thought of as a scout.

If you are a now scout, you can look forward to the day when you'll take leadership training and help as an instructor, scribe, quartermaster, librarian, bugler, den chief, or in some other troop job. You'll find that the leadership training you get will help you in ways you never dreamed - in school, at your summer job, and in your home life.

Speaking of home life, the new program puts strong emphasis on family living. That's even the name of one of the new skill awards you can earn. To be a whole person you've got to understand the problems of others and a good place to gain this understanding is within the companionable limits of your own clan.

in command of Captain Alan McNaughton of Hyannis, for competence and excellence, has already been presented. The award came from Captain Vernon Young, U.S.N., commodore of the NATO forces.

Another highlight of the special program will be the presentation of a framed oil painting in memory of William Panora of East Weymouth, class of 1950, who died some years ago of a heart attack.

The painting will be presented by Gerald E. Johnson of Hingham, a class mate and a member of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association, in behalf of the class of 1950. Lee F. Harrington, Academy President, will accept the gift for hanging in the new Academy Library.

The seascape and harbor scene was done by Mrs. Louise Kalish of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Panora of Saunders Street, East Weymouth, the boy's parents, and other relatives will attend.

CHRISTMAS - SAFETY

Stop the world -- it's Christmastime.

Wouldn't it be great if we could just get off the merry-go-round for a few days and think only of the joys of the holiday season. The good things ... family ... good friends ... good cheer.

Unfortunately this never-never land simply doesn't exist. Our mad, mad world still has its cares and everyday problems ... even at Christmastime.

At the risk of sounding a discordant note amidst the clear tinkling sounds of Christmas bells, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health reminds you not to get so carried away that you forget safety.

Let's not take the house we live in for granted.

An annual checkup, including a recheck of installation, proper venting and adequate flue connections of the home heating plant is necessary. Have a competent company do the job. Automatic equipment won't operate indefinitely without some adjustment. All oil burners, hot water heaters, coal stokers and gas burners require regular attention.

While you're at it, have a chimney inspection too from cellar to attic, including any open spaces where it passes through, such as closets.

Sometimes mortar crumbles and leaves openings that allow leakage of carbon monoxide and smoke. Unless repairs are made, these conditions may result in a dangerous fire hazard.

Another item requiring extra precaution is the outdoor storage of fuel for ranges. Always remember to bring fuel inside and let it reach room temperature before using. Always fill the oil container completely. Never use a half-filled container of cold fuel. Statistics show that this combination often results in a fatal explosion.

And now ... the car!

Take time to drive carefully and note road conditions. Drive sensibly, always observing the rules of the road. Bad temper and impatience are not sensible. It's far better to spend an extra half hour traveling carefully than to speed into a hospital. Adjust your driving to the turnpike and to the crowded streets, and remember to buckle up your seatbelts.

Just standing in the garage your car presents potential danger. It's usually during the cold weather that carbon monoxide poisoning sneaks up on you. Pull the car out of the garage to warm it up. Have a competent mechanic check the car's exhaust system regularly. It's the combination of a leaky muffler and closed windows that can be disastrous, if the motor is running.

It's wise to know that the best first aid measure to apply in cases of carbon monoxide poisoning, either in the home or car, is to open all windows and doors, remove the stricken person to fresh air and call a physician immediately.

Maybe we can't stop the world, but we can stop and think ... there is never a holiday from responsibility.
